Room 4 Year 6 Graduation Awards

Miss Grant

Dorothea

Dorothea's favourite memory from her time at Puhinui is that she got the learning she needed to move into the next stage of her life. Next year she is looking forward meeting new people who can help her improve her learning.

Dorothea, you are one of a kind. Your ability to write and dig deeper into the world around you is beyond your years and really inspiring. You should be so proud of who you are, and know that I am so proud of you too. I feel very lucky to have had you in Room Four this year. Thank you for always pulling me up when my jokes weren't that funny, I have always appreciated your reality checks. Stay you, Dózza. You're a legend and will be missed greatly.

Japneet

Japneet loved going to Vector Vero, and getting dumped into the river! She also loved all the wonderful memories made in Room 4. She is looking forward to making new friends and learning new things in intermediate.

Japneet, you have been such a pleasure to teach. You are an intelligent young girl and I hope you continue to flourish and grow your mind. I have no doubt that your intelligence both academically and creatively will take you to some weird and wonderful places. Thank you for always correcting me even when sometimes it was embarrassing for me, and thank you for never failing to go out of your way to help your friends with their learning. You are one bright kid Japneet, I will miss you heaps.

Ethan

Ethan's favourite part of attending Puhinui School was the friends he made, and having supportive teachers. Ethan is looking forward to making new friends at Intermediate.

Thank you for a fantastic year Ethan. You have shown awesome commitment to growing and learning. I hope you continue to nurture your passion for Volleyball and I'm sure one day we'll see you playing on the big screen! I wish you nothing but the best for Intermediate, you are one smart, motivated kid and I know that is going to take you far in life.

Zyan

One thing Zyan loved about Puhinui School is that it has given him so many opportunities and let him do the things that he loves. Next year, Zyan is looking forward to making new friends and seeing what is different in Papatoetoe Intermediate.

Zyan, you have been a bright light in Room 4 this year. You thrive in all areas of Puhinui School and have been a kind, thoughtful friend throughout the year. I hope you continue to play rugby and never lose your love for Maths. I will really miss you next year not only because you are an amazing kid but you also always knew the answers to maths equations that I had trouble with. Thank you for being such a good role model to your younger peers. I hope for nothing but the best for you at Intermediate.

Kinah

Kinah's favourite part of being at Puhinui School was getting to spend time with her friends every day, being in Room Four, and learning new things. Kinah is looking forward to seeing what her new school looks like, making new friends and learning even more new things!

Sweet Kinah! I will miss you lots next year. You have an innate ability to create a calm, positive energy in any room you walk into. Thank you for such a fun year. Thank you for being such a strong role model for your peers. I hope you have a fantastic time at ANI. That school and your next teacher are so so lucky to have you.

Eneasi

Eneasi's favourite part about Puhinui School was spending time with his friends and looking for the Duck. He is looking forward to having fun at his new school and making new friends.

Eneasi, first and foremost I will miss your sassiness, and sense of humour. Your ability to time a joke or say something so completely random that it has the whole class laughing is impressive. You have such a kind and caring heart and it shows through the way you are with your classmates and with me. You are a great kid and you are going to have such a fun time at Intermediate next year. Thank you for always trying your best in our classroom, I have absolutely loved teaching you.

Tanav

Tanav absolutely loved being at Puhinui School and his special memory is having Kingston as a best friend. Tanav hopes to try his best not to be shy at his new school and make new friends as a year seven.

Tanav, you have never failed to put a big smile on my face every day. Your knowledge of car models and makes has also never ceased to amaze me. Thank you for being your weird and funny self all year round. It has been so wicked being able to teach you and watch you grow this year. I will especially miss our 10 minute fit of laughter while trying to get your running record done, or every time you got a song stuck in my head and we'd end up singing it all day over and over again. I wish you all the best for next year and I will really miss you.

Shreya

Shreya has loved spending time with her teachers and friends at Puhinui School. She is looking forward to meeting her new teachers in Intermediate.

Thank you for being so caring to your classmates. You have grown into such a brave, charismatic young girl this year. I remember how shy you were at the start of the year, and now you are able to stand up in front of class and share your view on the world, which isn't always easy to do. I hope you have a fantastic time in Intermediate. I will miss your bubbly personality, contagious laugh and our giggle fits so much Shreya.

Kingston

Kingston's favourite memory of Puhinui School was when he was in Room 11 for the first time. He is looking forward to attending Manurewa Intermediate and making new friends.

Thank you for a fantastic year Kingston. I hope you feel proud of all you have achieved at your time here in Puhinui. I know I am definitely so proud of you. You are one of a kind kid and I am so grateful to have had the chance to teach you this year. Please don't ever stop wearing the coolest outfits for mufti day. I wish you nothing but the best for your future.

Chloe

The one thing Chloe loves the most about Puhinui School is that everyone is kind, and there are a lot of fun activities we can enjoy. Chloe is looking forward to making new friends, meeting new people and learning about the differences between Primary and Intermediate.

Chloe, from the first day of school when I met you, I knew you were going to have a special place in my heart. Thank you for your patience with all of us in Room Four and our craziness. Thank you for laughing at my silly jokes. Thank you for being kind, and loving, and sharing your passion for dance with us. You are such a sweet girl and I hope that you carry the support and love Room Four has for you into your next chapter at Intermediate. I will miss you so much Chlo.

Xzavia

Thank you for a wonderful year, Xzavia. Your dedication and commitment to your extracurricular activities and to your learning in class shows me how much you will achieve in your life. You are such a kind-hearted kid with a hilarious sense of humour and I hope you carry this on with you into your next school. I will really miss having you in Room Four and I hope you have a fantastic time at Intermediate.

Romika

You have grown so much this year Romika. Thank you for being such a helpful peer to your classmates. You are a dedicated and competitive learner and I am sure this will take you far in Intermediate, high school and beyond. I will really miss you next year and have really enjoyed having you in our class.

Emmie

Thank you heaps for the year Emmie. You're a smart, mature and friendly person and I hope you continue to nurture this part of you. I have really loved having you in Room Four this year and I know that your next teacher and school are going to be so happy to have you. Good luck and all the best.

Dennis

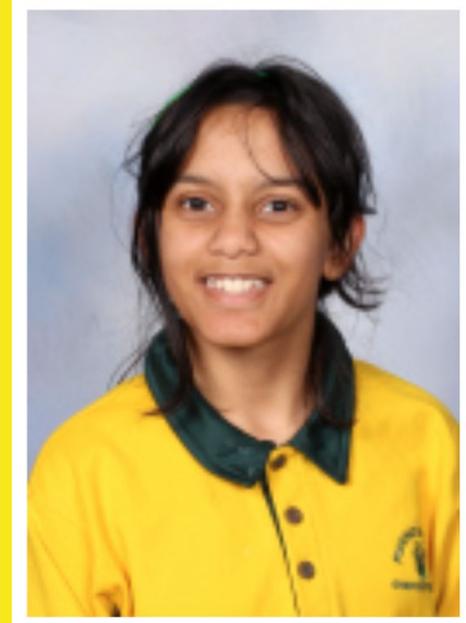

Dennis you have come such a long way from the start of the school year. I remember the conversations we had about gaming and how you weren't getting enough sleep, and then all of a sudden you stepped up and kicked in all of this effort and hard work in school, and thank goodness started sleeping earlier! Thank you for all your hard work, I have loved being able to teach you and watch you grow and mature this year. I hope you have a fantastic time in Intermediate and don't forget all the love and support Room Four has for you. I will miss you heaps.

Shanaya

Shanaya! My quirky girl. From day one you were such an energetic, exciting girl and I knew you and I would have lots of fun this year together. Thank you for being so true to yourself as it is a beautiful thing to be whole-heartedly yourself. I hope that you have a wonderful time at Intermediate and continue to write your amazing stories that I so easily got lost in. Your mind is wicked cool and I look forward to seeing where it takes you. All the best for next year.

Mrs Wright

Adeline

If there is ever an opportunity for free time in class Adeline will always choose to do maths. She adores this subject, and together we have travelled on a fantastic journey of discovery. Adeline you have always expressed your needs and desires with maturity and respect. I have truly loved teaching you. Adelines' favourite memory of Puhinui is Overnight Stay and at intermediate she is looking forward to making new friends and becoming even smarter. Ka Pai Adeline!

Ysmael

When I first meet Ysmael I wondered if he would ever volunteer to speak to me. But over the year his confidence grew and with that came some incredible progress in reading. Ysmael you should be very proud of everything you achieved at Puhinui School. Ysmael's favourite memory of Puhinui School is his great classmates and teachers. He is looking forward to making more new friends at intermediate.

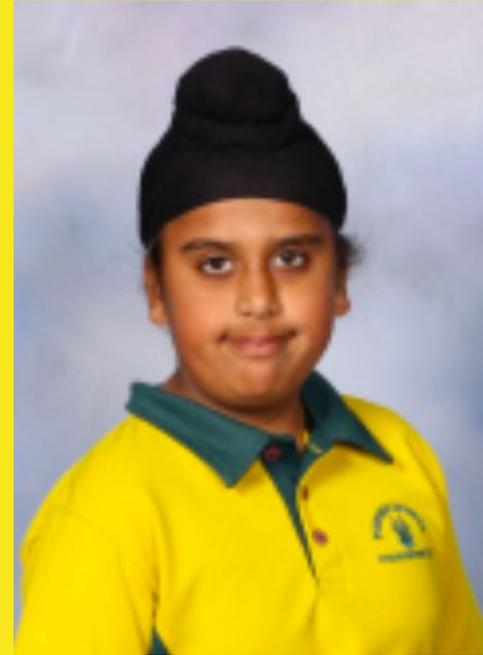

Harveer

Harveer has developed into a confident student who demonstrated leadership qualities during the year. You have always been happy to lend a hand to your peers and help people to do the right thing.

Harveer I was especially proud of you at Outdoor Education when we went to Panmure Pools. You showed great resilience and took the opportunity to overcome a fear of deep water. Well done!

Gurmannat

Gurmannat it has been a pleasure watching you grow and develop this year. You always try your best and make sure your fellow classmates are learning too. Gurmannat's favourite memory of Puhinui School is leaping into the ice cold water in the morning of Overnight Stay. She is looking forward to meeting new friends and working with hard materials at intermediate. It has been such a pleasure being your teacher this year Gurmannat.

Sophie

Sophie it has been such an honour to have you in my class this year. Your calm, sensible, and helpful nature has been so welcome to our class community. You have strived both academically and socially and I must commend you on you excellent progress in Maths. It has been a joy to watch this young mathematician grow in confidence. Sophie's favourite memory from Puhinui is white water rafting at Wero. At Intermediate Sophie is looking forward to making even more friends and becoming even better at Maths.

Dewayne

I have had the honour of teaching Dewayne for two years. Over this time I have witnessed Dewayne grow in confidence and resilience in the face of a challenge. Dewayne has a huge heart and loves to help out his peers. He also has a fantastic sense of humour. Dewayne's favourite memory from Puhinui School is playing basketball during sports afternoons. At intermediate Dewayne is looking forward to learning more science and maths so he can become an engineer.

Ayaan

Ayaan was my reliable student. Always ready to lend a hand. Quietly confident and very kind to your friends. You have embodied our Puhinui Values and I have welcomed teaching you and watching you progress this year.

Ayaan's favourite memory from Puhinui is receiving a PE award in Year 2. He is looking forward to intermediate with all the exciting subjects to try and new friends to make.

Prisha

Over this year Prisha has demonstrated maturity and resilience at every turn. Nothing seemed to phase you Prisha and you always take your learning seriously. It has been such a pleasure to teach you this year, supporting your academic development and watching your leadership skills blossom. Next year at intermediate, Prisha is looking forward to meeting up with old friends and putting all her skills she learnt at Puhinui into action.

Sai

Sai your fun loving, generous and kind nature has such a tonic to our classroom. You have displayed compassionate values towards myself and your fellow peers during this disrupted year and I thank you for that. Sai makes friends easily, he is always ready with a smile and a joke. It has been lovely watching you develop in your learning this year Sai. You will love intermediate, all the new experiences but most of all you will love making new friends.

Noor

Noor, it has been such a pleasure watching you grow and develop in confidence as a leader this year. You have worked incredibly hard and I thank you for being such a hardworking and reliable student. Noor's best memory from Puhinui School is Overnight Stay and she is really looking forward to meeting up with old friends and becoming even better at Maths.

Ava

Watching Ava display resilience in her learning every day has been amazing. You have made such great progress this year Ava and you should be very proud of yourself. Avas' favourite memory of Puhinui School is all the Science and Art she took part in. She is really looking forward to going to intermediate and making more friends.

Sneha

Sneha has been a very kind member of Room 7. Over this very disrupted year it has been lovely watching you rise to any challenge. But also lend a helping hand to your classmates. Sneha's' favourite memory is of Overnight Stay singing campfire songs under the stars with her friends. She is really looking forward to reconnecting with her friends from 2020 at intermediate.

Ansh

Ansh it has been such friendly, giving and talented student to have in my class. You made friends easily and looked out for your fellow classmates. Ansh loved sports afternoons and threw himself into trying new skills. You have made great progress this year Ansh, you can be very proud of everything you have accomplished here at Puhinui School.

William

I have had the pleasure of teaching William for two years and in that time I have seen him blossom into a more confident student who has made some very good friends. Williams favourite memory of his time at Puhinui School is doing fitness each day, he also loved taking part in dance. He is really looking forward trying new subjects and meeting new people at intermediate.

Job

Job is an incredible artist. The way you could draw complex images with ease always astounded us in Room 7. You made excellent progress in maths this year and should be very proud of yourself. I am sure you will love intermediate and I hope to see some of your artwork on display in a gallery one day.
